Dear Member

The Society's next meeting is the AGM to be held on Thursday, 17th October 2019 at The Vincent Rooms, Westminster Kingsway College, Vincent Square, London, SW1P 2PD. A bar facility will be available from 6.30pm and supper will be served promptly at 7.15pm. Following supper, the Society will be delighted to welcome Georgina Malet De Carteret, President of the National Trust for Jersey.

Although Georgina was born, educated and grew up in England, she has lived in Jersey for over fifteen years. Educated at a girl's school in Kent, she has a degree in History of Art at Manchester University. This led her to work for Sir Howard Hodgkin and for Sotheby's Auctioneers.

From 2001, Georgina was employed in the Prince's Charities Office supporting The Prince of Wales at Clarence House. The Prince's Charities represent the interests of 13 organizations which he either founded or presides over. They has grown to represent a broad range of areas including the Built Environment, the Arts, Responsible Business and Enterprise, Young People, Global Sustainability and Rural Affairs.

Georgina is married to a Jerseyman, Charlie, and has three daughters and three sons. She is interested in music, is a keen gardener and has spent the last four years restoring the gardens and woodlands around St Ouen's Manor to conserve its natural beauty and encourage wildlife.

Georgina is President of the National Trust for Jersey, an independent charity dedicated to permanently protect Jersey's natural beauty, rich wildlife and historic places for all to enjoy and experience. Georgina has long been a great admirer of the Trust and its achievements and will talk to Jersey Society in London about some of its recent projects and its plans for the future.
